KS2 Pupil of the Week

St Clare	Kingsley Chukwudi	For being my right hand man! For always bring ready for all lessons. For listening and producing super quality work. For being a pleasure to teach and a bright and cheery member of 3SB.
St Peter	Kaamil-Zain Davis	For always working hard in all your lessons. You have a great attitude to your learning and are always polite and courteous to others. You are a model student. Well done .
St John Bosco	Aiden Vaughan	For adjusting so well to being back at school and working hard. Keep up the good work.
St Columba	Zuzanna Bloszyk	For settling in so beautifully to her new class in her first week at OLOP. Well done .
St Blaise	Kornel Wojcik	Consistently settling down to work and being a good role model for the rest of the class.
St Paul	Gerard Cutting	Well done Gerry for always working so hard in class and always challenging yourself. Keep up the excellent work and behaviour.
St Maximilian	Oshanna Canoville	For persevering in maths and showing determination in completing the work. Keep it up!
St Ethelbert	Jack Deegan	For his fantastic contributions and imaginative ideas in English lessons this week.
St Dunstan	Jack Wynne	For very good behaviour and always putting in 100% effort in every lesson.
St Joseph	Maryam Abdullah	Maryam has worked extremely hard throughout the term. She is always kind and polite to others and sets an excellent example to all.
St Brigid	Millie McGiffen	Lovely to see Millie participate more in class discussion as she has so much to offer. Keep it up!
St Cuthbert	Kacper Wocial	For making good progress in his maths this term. Keep it up!
