Dear Parents/Carer.

Year 6 World War II Day

What a great day the children had on Wednesday. The children all looked amazing as did the staff. The children were so enthusiastic and joined in all the activities with the Drama Hut. Isabelle from 6 St Joseph said:

'On Wednesday all of Year 6 dressed up as WWII evacuees. A man called Fraser came in from the Drama Hut and told us some really fascinating facts about WWII and we heard how the air raid sirens would have sounded. Fraser told us a poem and then we had to act it out. All of Year 6 swopped classes, Mrs Klibi showed us card games, Mrs Snowden made Anderson Shelters and Mr Head made pictures of the World War. It was such a great day'

More photos are available on the website.
