23 January 2019,

Dear Year 1 and 2 Parents,

Book Week – Bringing Books to Life Workshops

World Book Day which is on Thursday, the 7th March is fast approaching. Apart from your child having the opportunity to dress up as their favorite book character on World Book Day, we have also booked an exciting story based workshop for your child. The workshops for each class will be held on Tuesday the 5th March, in the school hall.

Bringing Books to Life dance workshops give children a unique insight into books by using dance and movement to tell stories. Each workshop concludes with a performance moment, when the children perform aspects of their work to themselves and to their teacher. The children will be inspired to use their imaginations as they explore their chosen book in a new and vibrant way.

During the dance workshop a choreographer will work with each class, developing responses to some of our most beloved children's books through language, movement and dance. Stories included are: How to Catch a Star by Oliver Jeffers; Where the Wild Things Are by Maurice Sendak; Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl.

In order to support this exciting event we would like to request a voluntary contribution of £2 per child.

Yours sincerely,

J. Holden
