Blue Penguin Dress Up Day

This week the Reception children kick started their 'Blue Penguin' topic with a Penguin dress up day. The children were asked to come in dressed as a certain type of penguin. During the day, they were grouped according to their type and where they live. Reception are having lots of fun learning all about penguins! So far they have been discovering Antarctica, measuring and comparing how tall penguins from around the world are, writing labels for penguins and making edible banana penguins! The children and staff waddled their way around the reception areas. A great time was had by all! We can't wait to continue our topic next week.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best Wishes
