

Working with the Community

The children were invited to enter a Christmas Drawing Competition; their work was displayed in the shop window.
December 2018